

HOME
↓ FOR LITTLE WANDERERS

Dear Faith,

The other day one of our kids, John, saw his new coat. A smile grew on his face that stretched from ear-to-ear. "This is mine?" he asked. John tried on his new coat and modeled it in front of a mirror. He nodded and exclaimed, "This is cool!"

I wanted to share this story with you because it's exactly why we are so thankful to you. I can go on and on about the work you do and its impact but its stories like John's that drive the point home.

For John and the 98 children who have new cool coats, Thank You!!!

Lidia Maldonado

