

Cooperative Economics For Women

December 1, 2009

Kids Clothes Club
120 Cypress Street
Brookline, MA 02445

Dear Faith and Elaine,

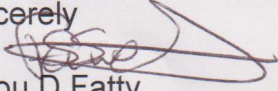

On behalf of the members, staff and board of Cooperative Economics for Women (CEW), I would like to thank Kids Clothes Club for your donation of 76 winter coats this year. As we entered the winter season, your donation is a tremendous help to making sure that no child is cold and wonderful boost to our work. Your commitment to helping in creating a safe place for the children is greatly appreciated.

With your support, Cooperative Economics for Women can continue its efforts to providing a safe, warm, healthy and enriching life for these children. Gift like yours help maintain the programs and services that transform the lives of these children and their families.

As a nonprofit organization, Cooperative Economics for Women relies on the support of the groups like Kid clothes club. Thank you again for your generosity.

Sincerely

Fatou D Fatty
Associate Director